

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, August 12, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Gov. declares emergency

WorldCom: Downfall in 2000

Report: Productivity growth slowest in year

Arguments nothing new

Stakes high at every turn

Mosquito spray trucks considered least effective

Experts: West Nile may taper

Doctors find insurance, reopen practice

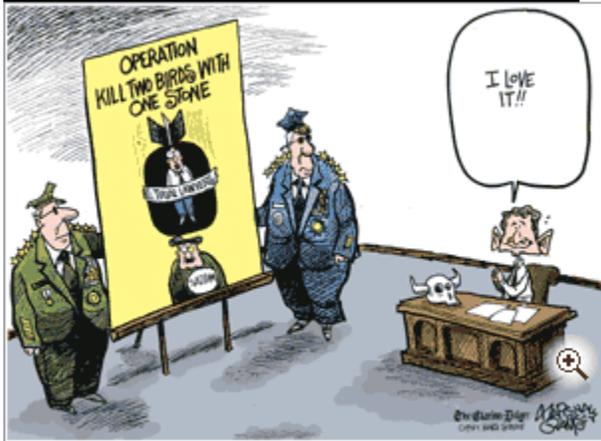

Meaningful tort reform needed now

'Caps' wouldn't punish wrongdoers

Put legislators on the state pay plan

Governor/Legislature at odds over who runs our prisons

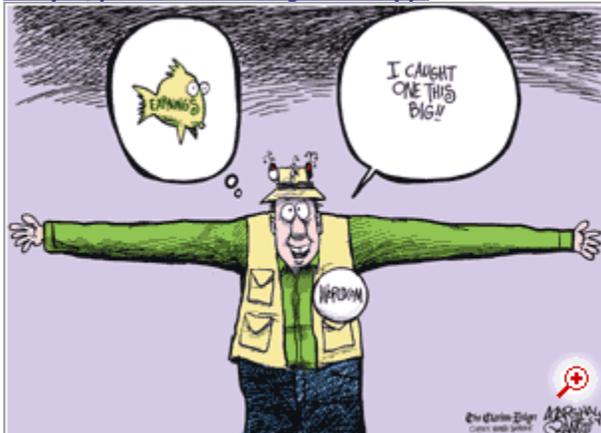

Bush met with GOP convert lawmaker

States' tort reforms eyed

Calif. held up as tort model

Lawyer/politicians ruining Mississippi

The Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi
West Nile emergency declared
Homefield advantage
Crisis or PR campaign?
FACING AN EPIDEMIC

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi
West Nile state of emergency declared by Musgrove
Reauthorization of TANF leaves some questions unanswered
LLOYD GRAY: One size in school policy doesn't fit all
EDITORIAL: President's in the fray, but legislators must do the work
FRED BREWER: What education needs is more teachers and fewer educators

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.
Miss. declares West Nile emergency
West Nile spreading across U.S., says CDC chief

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi
Doctor is hesitant to return home

Laurel Leader-Call

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register
Local doctor disagrees with West Nile diagnosis
Mayo's looking solid in 2003

The Bolivar Commercial

Enterprise Journal McComb

The Greenwood Commonwealth
Hospital has baby delivery covered
Health experts say West Nile outbreaks likely to taper off
Do damage caps work as advertised?

The Natchez Democrat
Musgrove declares emergency, hopes to find funds for West Nile

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report
Sid Salter: Biz, labor, lawyers, PACs give for 3rd District Race
Tim Kalich: Why Greenwood got prison shaft
Bush's timing good for supporters of civil justice reform

The New York Times
Debt Offerings Scheduled for This Week

The Washington Post
Miss. Declares West Nile Emergency
Trade Votes Roil House Races

The Washington Times